GOES THE WAY AND SHOWS THE WAY

OUR MISSION

Empowering and building new Leaders for the better Christian Transformation in communities through educational workshops and biblical training programs.

“

BECOMING LEADER ISN'T EASY. IT HAD TO BE EARNED, AND THAT ONLY HAPPENS OVER A PERIOD OF TIME.

CALLING FOR LEADERSHIP

EVANGELISM

With evangelism, we do this at three main fronts - apologetics, culture and identity. Training topics also includes evolution, defending the exclusive claims of Christianity, dealing with relativism, the impacts of negative media, and our identity in Christ and more.

STEWARDSHIP

Regarding stewardship, we address three fronts: communications, operations and discipleship. Stewardship training topics include marketing and outreach, business development, staff/volunteer development, mentoring and contingency planning and more.

BIBLICAL MODELS OF LEADERSHIP

Paul, Nehemiah, Joshua, Barnabas, Moses, Elijah, Daniel and Peter. Leading/Living a Spiritual Life in the Secular World.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

SENIOR LEADERS

- Delegation & empowerment. No leader can do everything themselves. Understanding when to delegate, and then standing by your delegation, is one of the most critical executive leadership training topics. Defining and clearly communicating tasks, selecting the right team, agreeing on objectives and resources, setting deadlines, and supporting the assignee's work.
- Conflict resolution. Churches/Organizations are made up of people, and people come into conflict. Learning to resolve conflict in a way that honors both sides belongs to every management training topics list. Clarify disagreements, establish common goals, identify and circumvent barriers to teamwork, and build consensus around a resolution.
- Change management. Lead with the culture, starting at the top and involving every layer, make the emotional and rational case for change, leverage formal and informal solutions, and engage, adapt, and assess.
- Influence. Why do some people command respect without ever giving commands? Belief in your team, servant leadership, giving and earning trust, investing in others, autonomy, and leading with character.
- Motivation and engagement. People are not machines. Understand what motivates them, and they can exceed your wildest expectations. Fostering a pleasant working environment, encouraging happiness, setting clear goals, micromanaging, collaboration, and self-development.

YOUNG ADULTS AND VOLUNTEERS

- Interpersonal relationships. Spiritual things are not built on technology; they are built on relationships. Train leaders to cultivate relationships with others on their team and across cross teams or groups. Cultivating a positive outlook, managing emotions, Active listening, and empathy.
- Decision skills. Ability to make the right decision and stand by it nurtures confidence and streamlines the whole church/organization. Understanding reactions and tolerances, first principles, risk-taking, and leverage the perspective of others.
- Time and energy management. Many distractions vie for leaders' time and tend to sap the energy the fuels productivity in the time they have. Therefore, effective leadership training includes tips and tips for time and energy management. Distractions and open-mindedness.
- Self-awareness. Before leaders can manage others, they must effectively manage ourselves. Self-awareness training asks leaders to self-reflect on their emotions, strengths, and weaknesses. Feeling feelings, giving and receiving feedback, keeping an open mind, and mindfulness.
- Communication skills. Mistrust springs from misunderstanding. Effective communication is critical to effective leadership. Establishing trust, speaking with precision and clarity, using body language and tone, avoiding assumptions, and how to have difficult conversations.
